Federal Nominating Commission receives 11 applications for vacancy on Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit

MADISON -- Eleven applications have been received by the Wisconsin Federal Nominating Commission to fill the vacancy on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. The opening results from Judge Terence T. Evans' announcement in July that he will be taking senior status in January 2010. The following individuals have applied for the post:

- Lynn S. Adelman
- Linda M. Clifford
- David L. De Bruin
- Anuj C. Desai
- Paul B. Higginbotham
- Anne B. Kearney
- Randall L. Nash
- Lisa S. Neubauer
- Victoria F. Nourse
- Richard J. Sankovitz
- Dean A. Strang

The eleven-member commission, which has been making recommendations since 1979, will screen applicants and interview potential candidates before submitting its final recommendations to the state's two U.S. Senators, Herb Kohl and Russ Feingold.
