Governor Doyle Seeks Applicants for Court of Appeals Judicial Vacancy

Governor Jim Doyle announced today that he is seeking applicants for appointment as District I Court of Appeals Judge.

The new appointment will fill the vacancy created by the passing of Judge Ted E. Wedemeyer, Jr. The appointee will begin serving upon appointment and complete a term ending July 31, 2009.

An applicant must be a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of Wisconsin and must reside in Milwaukee County at the time the appointment becomes effective.

Those interested may obtain an application form electronically from:

Office of the Governor
Attention: Libby Gerds, Appointments Director
