

AMC 2023

Session 1

When the Black Community
Thrives, Wisconsin Benefits:
Calling on Lawyers to be
Agents of Real Change

Dr. Alexander Gee, The Center for Black Excellence and Culture and The Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development, Madison

Materials were not submitted in advance for this session.
Materials brought to the conference will be posted at myState Bar, myMedia, Prior Seminars Archive for 30 days after the conference.

About the Presenter...

Rev. Dr. Alexander Gee, is CEO of The Center for Black Excellence and Culture. He is also the founding Lead Pastor of Fountain of Life Church, and founder of the Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development, as well as its renowned initiative, Justified Anger. Gee is a published author, adjunct faculty, community activist, life coach, international lecturer, and relief worker. Gee is considered a serial social entrepreneur, having started four successful small businesses and initiatives that currently employ nearly 40 staff. In recognition of his work within the local community, Dr. Gee has received numerous honors, such as the 1994 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Humanitarian Award from the City of Madison. Dr. Gee studied at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Fuller Seminary, and Bakke Graduate University. He is the author of two books and host for the award-winning podcast, Black Like Me.