Inspiration:

"The best antidote I know for worry is work. The best cure for weariness is the challenge of helping someone who is even more tired. One of the great ironies of life is this: He or she who serves almost always benefits more than he or she who is served."- Gordon B. Hinckley

There are multiple ways you can help.

1) Volunteer at the legal assistance clinics. It is a great way to fulfill your pro bono requirements, and to meet potential clients. We understand that your time is limited, and you do not need to stay for the entirety of the clinic, or arrive right at 4pm.

2) Volunteer as a referral attorney. Referral attorneys need not be present at the legal clinics. Instead, their name and contact information will be distributed to patrons whose legal questions align with the attorney's area of expertise. The attorney and the individual will then set up a time to phone conference or meet at a convenient time and date.

3) Volunteer to take on cases at a reduced rate. This is an excellent opportunity for lawyers new to the profession, and lawyers looking to recruit new clients. These lawyer volunteers also need not be present at the clinics; we would simply add their contact information and area of expertise to our referral list. Their contact information would then be distributed to clinic clients willing to pay a reduced fee for legal services.
