Wisconsin Pro Bono Honor Society

As fall arrives, now is the time to start thinking about nominating the 2014 members of the Wisconsin Pro Bono Honor Society. The Pro Bono Honor Society is an annual recognition program that was launched last year by the Wisconsin Access to Justice Commission and the State Bar of Wisconsin pro bono program as a way to salute the volunteer lawyers who help provide access to justice for low-income Wisconsin residents. The program got off to a good start with the first class of 121 lawyers who qualified and were nominated for this recognition based on their service in 2013 but we want to make sure that every lawyer who qualifies this year either self-nominates or is nominated by someone knowledgeable about their service.

Newsletter - If, as a member, you would like to post an announcement in the monthly newsletter, please let us know. As in the past, these can be new-hires, job postings, space-for-rent or other announcements that have to do with your practice.

If you are a member of the WCBA, as well as a member of another non-profit organization, you are welcome to post event announcements to the rest of the membership encouraging them to attend – for example – the date for the Neenah Rotary Uncorked and Uncapped fundraiser, or the Black & Pink Ball benefitting the non-profit you are a board member for. We'd be happy to let everyone know. Send us an email and we'll make sure it's printed.

Keep in mind, you are the contact person and will be listed in the newsletter as the point of contact for more information and questions.
