State Bar of Wisconsin Modest Means Referral Service Client Instruction Sheet

The Modest Means Program of the State Bar of Wisconsin assists people whose income is too high to qualify for free legal services, but too low to pay a lawyer’s standard rate. The Modest Means Program is run by the Lawyer Referral and Information Service at the State Bar. When we receive your completed application and documentation, we will try to match you with an attorney who has agreed to consider certain cases at a reduced rate.

The Modest Means Referral Service accepts applications for legal matters in these areas of practice: Bankruptcy, Criminal Defense (including ordinance violations, traffic offenses, and misdemeanors), Consumer Law, Power of Attorney and Wills, and Family Law.

To apply for reduced fee legal services:

1. Complete the application form. Include a description of your legal problem. Sign and date the application.
2. Make copies of your income and expenses documentation. Include your wages, court ordered income (such as child support or maintenance), and benefits such as Social Security, SSI, workers compensation, unemployment or VA benefits. Block out sensitive information such as your Social Security number or bank account numbers. Send copies of your documentation with your application.
3. Send the signed application form and copies of income documentation to our office at:
 State Bar of Wisconsin
