RULES

Tenth Judicial District Rules

101 District Rule adoption and promulgation

101.01 Pursuant to §753.35 (2), the Tenth Judicial District Court Rules are incorporated herein by reference.

Court Practice

200 Filing Court Papers

200.1 All papers filed with the Clerk of Court shall be on 8.5 X 11 inch paper, except for Court exhibits and wills.

200.2 The Clerk of Court or Register in Probate shall return any paper not in conformity with § 200.1 to the person or party attempting to file it.

200.3 No person may attach more than 10 pages to any petition for a restraining order.

201 Calendars for attorneys

202 Closure of Proceedings

202.01 Media Coverage

Unless good cause be shown, or otherwise required by statute, a party moving that any judicial proceeding be closed to the public must notify the Court and the media coordinator in writing at least 72 hours before the time set to hear the motion. The purpose of this rule is to permit legal counsel to appear on behalf of the media and be heard. The burden shall be upon the moving party to show why the proceedings should not be public.

203 Confidential Records

204 Continuances

205 Court Commissioner

206 Entry of order/judgments (Five-day Rule)

207 Facsimile/E-mail Transmission of Documents to the Court

207.1 Facsimile documents transmitted directed to the Barron County Clerk of Court shall be accepted for filing only if:

- a. They are faxed to the following number which is a dedicated plain paper facsimile machine located in the Barron County Clerk of Court's office: 715/537-6269.
- b. The document does not exceed fifteen (15) pages in length, excluding the cover sheet.
- c. No filing fee is required.
- d. No additional fee or charge must be paid by the Circuit Court for accepting or receiving the facsimile document.

207.2 Papers filed by facsimile transmission are considered filed when received by the Clerk of Court, except that any papers filed by facsimile transmission completed after regular business hours of the Barron County Clerk of Court are considered filed the next business day.

- 207.3 The party transmitting the facsimile document is solely responsible for insuring its timely and complete receipt.
- 207.4 The Circuit Court, Judge and Clerk, are not responsible for:
- a. Errors or failures in transmission that result in missing or illegible documents.
 - b. Periods when the Circuit Court facsimile machine is not operational for any reason.
- 207.5 Any subsequently received copies or originals (by mail or personal delivery) of documents filed with the Court by facsimile transmission will be discarded by the Court. The fax documents, upon receipt by the Court, are the official records of the Court and cannot be substituted.
- 207.6 The Judge assigned to a particular case may authorize in advance the filing of particular documents in that case that do not conform to these rules if good cause is shown and they are in conformance with Wis. Stat. 801.16.
- 207.7 Documents that are not to be filed, but are to be used by the Court for reference or other purposes may be transmitted by facsimile transmission at the discretion of the Judge or Clerk.
- 207.8 E-mail Communication with the court.
- No party or lawyer shall communicate directly or indirectly with a Judge by email regarding any pending or closed case. Party includes, but is not limited to, social workers, probation agents, corrections/police officers or pro se individuals. Lawyer includes legal assistant, secretary or other office staff of the lawyer.

No substantive issue on any pending or closed case may be communicated to the Judicial Assistant by email. All substantive issues must be communicated by letter or motion and e-filed. Pro se parties may submit written correspondence which will be scanned and filed by the clerk. All lawyers are required to opt-in to any criminal or civil case, whether pending or closed, and e-file communication intended for the Court. A copy of the e-filed communication must be mailed to a pro se party at the time of filing.

A party or lawyer may communicate directly with a Judicial Assistant by email for scheduling, case assignments, requests for telephone appearance or jury trial notification (i.e. trial status and order of trials pursuant to policy), provided that the other party or lawyer is copied on the email communication.

208 Fees

209 Filing a name change

Before the Court will approve your name change, you MUST:

1. File a Petition For Name Change and pay the filing fee to the Barron County Clerk of Court.
2. File a certified copy of your birth certificate with your Petition.
3. Obtain a hearing date from the assigned Judge's judicial assistant.

4. Publish you Petition and Notice of Hearing with your local newspaper for three consecutive weeks.
5. Obtain an Affidavit of Publication from the newspaper following the last publication of notice.
6. Present the Affidavit of Publication to the Judge at your hearing.
7. Present to the Court a proposed final order for the Judge's signature.
8. Following the hearing, present to the Barron County Clerk of Court the completed Vital Statistics Form (attached hereto) and a check for $22.00 payable to the Center for Health Statistics.
9. If you are changing the name of your child (including a non-marital child), both parents must sign the petition. If other parent cannot be located, termination of parental rights is necessary.

The Court cannot grant your name change unless you have followed all the steps above.

210 Holding of court in location other than the county seat

211 Issuing of Writs

212 Judicial Assignments

212.01 INTAKE COURT

The three branches of the Barron County Circuit Court shall preside alternately over intake court. The intake court rotates between the branches for two (2) weeks at a time. (effective January 1, 2022)

212.02 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

- A. Case assignments made under this Order continue until final disposition, unless otherwise required by law. A case assignment does not change in the event of a bindover in a felony case or other finding of probable cause.
- B. Requests for modification or enforcement of a final order of judgment in family matters shall assigned by the Clerk equally to each branch.
- C. The following shall be assigned to the intake judge and, as set forth below, shall remain with that judge unless transferred by mutual agreement of the branches:
 1.
 - a. All Criminal Cases [felony (CF), misdemeanor (CM) or criminal traffic (CT)]: the first appearance before a branch, i.e. bail hearing or initial appearance, determines case assignment;
 - b. Any traffic citation (TR) or forfeiture (FO) case arising from the same incident charged in the felony (CF), misdemeanor (CM), or criminal traffic (CT) case shall be assigned to the judge assigned to the CF or CM case regardless of the initial appearance date for the TR or FO case.
 2. All traffic and ordinance violations

3. All DNR regulation violations
 4. All emergency mental, alcohol and drug commitments, protective placements, and Chapter 980 petitions. All these cases remain in the intake court, not with the intake judge.
 5. Temporary guardianships.
 6. All Chapter 48 and Chapter 938 cases, except:
 - If the child/juvenile or his/her siblings already have a case in the Barron County Juvenile Court, it will be assigned to the Branch that handled the previous case(s); or
 - If the child/juvenile is subject to a family court case in this County, the case shall be assigned to the family court judge.
 Notwithstanding the above exceptions, the intake judge shall hear all Temporary Physical Custody requests regardless of the case assignment.
 7. Small Claims cases will be assigned to the Intake Judge who is presiding on the return date of the case.
- D. Arrest warrants and search warrant applications shall be made to the intake court or to another Branch if the intake court is unavailable. Signing the warrant does not constitute case assignment.
- E. The following cases shall be assigned by lot by the Clerk of Court, Register In Probate and Juvenile Clerk:
1. Civil action under Chapter 801
 3. Actions affecting the family under Section 767 (support actions will be consolidated with the pending divorce action)
 4. Paternity cases, other non-support cases and URESA actions (exception: where the payor has actions for other children or families which are filed prior to the current case, the current case should be assigned to the Judge handling the payor's prior case(s).)
 5. Writs
 6. Administrative appeals
 7. Non-emergency mental and alcohol commitments, protective placements
 8. All probate, guardianships, conservatorships, name changes and adoptions (adoptions filed in conjunction with a TPR are assigned to the Judge assigned to the TPR)
 9. TPRs (any separate petitions filed for TPR which involve children from a single family will be treated as one assignment to a single Judge. TPRs will also be assigned to the Judge who has handled the CHIPS case or cases.)
- F. Petition for temporary restraining orders and injunctions based upon allegations of abuse or harassment shall be assigned to the Branch which conducts the first hearing.

- G. Any time cases are consolidated, the consolidation will always be to the case initially filed unless ordered otherwise by the Court.

212.04 LIMITATIONS OF JURISDICTION

This Order is intended to equalize and rotate caseloads and not to limit the jurisdiction of any Branch over any matter. Nothing in this Order shall limit jurisdiction of any Branch over any matter brought before it. Each Branch shall be free, in its discretion, to exercise jurisdiction over any matter when another Branch is unavailable.

212.05 FAMILY COURT COMMISSIONER

The Barron County Family Court Commissioner shall hear:

- A. All initial temporary hearings in all divorce and family matters.
- B. All initial paternity actions,
- C. All uncontested and stipulated divorces, annulments or legal separations.

213 Jury Fees

214 Rules of Decorum

- 214.01 Court shall be formally opened each day in which a jury trial is being conducted. This will be done by the bailiff or the clerk of court. As the Judge enters the courtroom, the bailiff or clerk of court shall require all present to rise and stand. When the Judge has reached the bench, the bailiff or the clerk of court shall say "Hear ye! Hear ye! The Circuit Court for the County of Barron is now in session, the Honorable _____ presiding. All shall be seated and the business of the court shall proceed."
- 214.02 On all other business days, the clerk of court shall call for order and require all to rise as the judge enters the courtroom.
- 214.03 In the recessing, the judge shall announce: "The Court is now in recess".
- 214.04 When the trial is to a jury, the Judge shall return to the bench before the jury is called in. All are required to stand and afford the jury the same respect as is given the Judge.
- 214.05 The flag of the United States and the State of Wisconsin shall at all times, while Court is in session, be displayed at, on or in the close proximity to the bench, or on standard to the right of the Judge.
- 214.06 Lawyers shall never lean upon the bench or appear to engage the Court in a manner which would lessen the dignity of the proceedings in the eyes of the jury and the public.
- 214.07 Witnesses shall be examined from a position behind the counsel table or lectern except when handling exhibits. Persons examining witnesses may either stand while examining a witness or remain seated. In no case shall a witness be crowded during examination.
- 214.08 When a lawyer or party is addressing the jury, he or she shall not crowd the jury box.

- 214.09 The Court will do the majority of questioning and counsel cannot repeat the Court's questions or ask information provided on the jury questionnaires.
- 214.10 During trial, no lawyer or party shall exhibit familiarity with witnesses, jurors, or opposing counsel and generally the use of first names shall be avoided. In jury arguments no juror shall be addressed individually or by name.
- 214.11 Witnesses shall be examined with courtesy and respect, and their good faith presumed until the contrary appears.
- 214.12 The swearing of witnesses shall be an impressive ceremony and not a mere formality
- 214.13 Lawyers will treat the Court and opposing counsel with respect and dignity.
- 214.14 In jury cases which are disposed of upon a motion for non-suit or directed verdict, the Judge in dismissing the jury should briefly explain the procedure and why a verdict was unnecessary.
- 214.15 Attorneys and parties shall be prepared to proceed at the time matters are scheduled. Failure to proceed on time may be grounds for sanctions, including but not limited to costs, dismissal, judgment, and ruling against the late party on the particular matter before the Court.
- 214.16 Judges, Court Commissioners, lawyers, clerks, and court personnel shall at all times do all of the following:
- (a) Maintain a cordial and respectful demeanor and be guided by a fundamental sense of integrity and fair play in all their professional activities.
 - (b) Be civil in their dealings with one another and with the public and conduct all court and court-related proceedings, whether written or oral, including discovery proceedings, with civility and respect of the participants.
 - (c) Abstain from making disparaging, demeaning or sarcastic remarks or comments about one another.
 - (d) Abstain from any conduct that may be characterized as uncivil, abrasive, abusive, hostile, or obstructive.
 - (e) While in court or while participating in legal proceedings, dress in a manner showing proper respect for the court, the proceedings, and the law. Judges shall wear black robes while presiding on the bench except when exceptional circumstances exist.
 - (f) Advise clients, witnesses, jurors, and others appearing in court that proper conduct and attire is expected within the courthouse and, where possible, prevent clients, witnesses, or others from creating disorder or disruption.
 - (g) In scheduling all hearings, meetings and conferences, are considerate of the time schedules of the participants and grant reasonable extensions of time when they will not adversely affect the court calendar or client's interests.
 - (h) Conduct them in a manner which demonstrates sensitivity to the necessity of preserving decorum and the integrity of the judicial process.

- 214.17 Judges, court commissioners, and lawyers shall be punctual in convening and appearing for all hearings, meetings and conferences, and if delayed, shall notify other participants if possible.
- 214.18 Lawyers shall do all of the following:
- (a) Make all reasonable efforts to reach informal agreement on preliminary and procedural matters.
 - (b) Attempt expeditiously to reconcile differences through negotiation, without needless expense and waste of time.
 - (c) Abstain from pursuing or opposing discovery arbitrarily or for the purpose of harassment or undue delay.
 - (d) If an adversary is entitled to assistance, information, or documents, provides them to the adversary without unnecessary formalities.
 - (e) Abstain from knowingly deceiving or misleading another lawyer or the Court.
 - (f) Clearly identify for the Court and other counsel changes that he or she has made in documents submitted to him or her by counsel or by the Court.
- 214.19 Adherence to standards of professionalism and courtesy, good manners and dignity is the responsibility of each Judge, Court Commissioner, Lawyer, Clerk and other personnel of the Court who assist the public.
- 214.20 Rules Inside the Courtroom
1. All computers, cellphones and electronic devices must be silenced and stowed out of sight when court is in session, except for attorneys and parties at counsel tables when necessary for the presentation or scheduling of the case.
 2. No audio or video recording.
 3. No weapons.
 4. No food, water or beverages, except for water with prior permission of the court.
 5. No caps, hats or hoods. Proper attire for court is required.
