
Dane County Circuit Court Rule 102:
Duty Judge Responsibilities*ORDER

IT IS ORDERED Rule 102 is amended as follows:

4. Injunctions

All harassment, child abuse, ~~and domestic abuse injunctions~~, and individual at risk injunctions set before the duty judge will be scheduled for Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings.

Extensions of the time for the injunction hearing for due to non-service should be scheduled two weeks out for the next duty judge, but ~~s~~ Setovers for any other reason shall be assigned to the calendar of the duty judge originally assigned to hear the case. The court may set the case over ~~for grant a party a one week setover~~ to allow a party to attend a the injunction hearing with counsel of choice, if the court is provided with evidence that the attorney of choice is unavailable at the scheduled time of a the first injunction hearing and the parties stipulate to the extension of the temporary restraining order.

~~For the purpose of hearing petitions, issuing temporary restraining orders and injunction hearings in harassment cases involving minors, the duty judge shall be designated as a juvenile judge.~~

The duty judge shall be designated as the juvenile judge for any cases opened as Juvenile Injunction (JI) cases.

If requested by the party, the duty judge shall review the decision of a court commissioner to deny a temporary restraining order.

If the court finds the respondent possesses firearms and orders the firearms to be surrendered, After an injunction requiring firearm surrender is granted a compliance hearing shall be held by the duty judge in the within one week following the entry of the after the injunction is granted and scheduled on a day when injunction hearings are routinely heard. Compliance hearings will be held Tuesday and Thursday at 11:30 am. The compliance hearing will be canceled upon the filing of if the respondent files a Sheriff's Receipt documenting surrender of the firearms to the Sheriff's Office, or an agreed Respondent's Statement of Possession of Firearms (CV-800V at <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/oecvs/vawa/violence-against-women-document-library>) indicating there are no owned firearms.

Effective October 28, 2024

Dated this 28th day of October, 2024

Julie Genovese, Chief Judge
5th Judicial Administrative District