Biographical Information

For your upcoming seminar we ask that you provide us with a brief 100 word biography which will be used to introduce you and will be included in printed materials provided to seminar attendees.

If we have your biography on file, it will be sent to you for approval and/or revisions. Please:

1. Let   it is okay to use this biography.

   or
2. Send an updated version.

If we do not have your biography on file, please prepare and send your biographical information in an email.

Suggested information to include in your biography:
- Firm and position (associate, shareholder, partner)
- Areas of concentration in your practice
- Education (college, law school, honors received)
- Clerkships
- Memberships (local, state or national bar associations; other professional affiliations)
- Most recent publication(s)
- Other interesting or noteworthy professional accomplishments
- Hobbies

Sample biographies

Martin J. Smith is a shareholder in the Madison Law firm of Jones & Jones, S.C. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in Political Science, and his law degree from Harvard Law School magna cum laude. After graduation, he clerked for Justice Benjamin Kaplan of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court. Mr. Smith is a past chair of the Taxation Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin and is currently chair of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law section of the State Bar of Wisconsin. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Mary M. Jones is an associate with the Milwaukee law firm of Anderson, Butler & Smith. She holds a B.A. in Economics from Carleton College, and a J.D. from Marquette University Law School. Before joining Anderson, Butler & Smith, she served as a law clerk for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. She is a certified public accountant and the author of several tax articles for the Wisconsin Lawyer. Ms. Jones is a member of the Milwaukee County Bar Association and the State Bar of Wisconsin.