Wisconsin Law Foundation accepting grant applications for legal education and justice programs

MADISON, Wis. – The Wisconsin Law Foundation is now accepting applications for its Truman Q. McNulty grants, which provide up to $2,800 for charitable and educational programs that promote public understanding of the legal system and improve the administration of justice in Wisconsin. The application deadline is April 18, 2025.

Thanks to contributions from members of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Foundation annually funds projects that directly impact Wisconsin residents. In 2024, the Foundation awarded $32,600 in grants to 13 organizations, supporting initiatives such as teen courts, self-represented family law litigants, eviction diversion programs, and immigration legal services.

One recent grant recipient, the Wisconsin Teen Court Association, received $2,500 to support the 2024 Wisconsin Restorative Justice Summit. The summit, held at Madison College's Truax Campus, brought together youth and professionals to advance restorative justice practices.

Apply by April 18, 2025

Organizations interested in applying can visit the Foundation's grants webpage for full application details. For additional information, contact Beth Drake at WLF-Fellows@wisbar.org or call (608) 250-6171 or (800) 444-9404, ext. 6171.

Grant applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Friday, April 18, 2025. Award decisions will be announced by May 31, 2025.
