

Traveling Exhibit. Current American Bar Association (ABA) President Michelle Behnke, former president of the State Bar of Wisconsin (2004-05), and the ABA Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress donated a traveling exhibit celebrating the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence for use by the State Bar and Wisconsin's legal community groups. The exhibit, through seven banners, explores our founding document's "heroic and controversial legacy, examining how independence from monarchy promoted democratic principles and upheld the rule of law in America."
