Madison, WI – Wisconsin's Federal Nominating Commission, charged with making recommendations for vacancies in federal judgeships and U.S. attorney positions, is accepting applications for a vacancy on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin. The opening resulted when U.S. District Court Judge Rudolph Randa announced in 2016 that he was taking senior status and subsequently passed away. U.S. Sens. Ron Johnson and Tammy Baldwin have re-established the commission as of September 16, 2019.

The commission seeks qualified candidates for appointment to the vacancy. Application materials will be made available beginning Monday, September 16, 2019, and must be returned no later than noon on Wednesday, October 16, 2019. The commission's application and instructions (which are separate documents) are available in downloadable form. They can be found at the commission's website: www.wisbar.org/fnc.

Judge Charles N. Clevert, Jr. and Attorney Paul Swanson will co-chair the commission for this vacancy. Other commissioners include Attorneys William Curren, Barbara Quindel, Richard Esenberg and Jeremy Levinson.

All inquiries and correspondence regarding the Federal Nominating Commission should be directed to Atty. Lisa Roys, Advocacy and Access to Justice Director, State Bar of Wisconsin, P.O. Box 7158, Madison, WI 53707-7158. Roys may also be reached toll-free at (800) 444-9404, ext. 6128 or via email at lroys@wisbar.org.
