Tell us why you believe this individual would be an outstanding candidate. What leadership attributes have they demonstrated, background or involvement in their community or the profession that moves you to recommend them?

The State Bar of Wisconsin is committed to having a broad range of participants in each Leadership Summit class including varying beliefs, experiences, interests, and viewpoints. Please provide information to demonstrate what they bring as a future State Bar leader. For example, you may want to provide information about how they would add a unique perspective to the program.
