
10/75 B Professional calling cards

A professional calling card including only the lawyer's name, the firm name, address and telephone number, without the designation "attorney at law" would not constitute a violation of the Code of Professional Responsibility.