11/69 D      Deceased or retired partners names may be continued

Under the new provision DR 2-102(B), the names of deceased or retired partners may be continued in a firm name without restriction so long as no deception results from such practice. This provision overrules the former “four year rule” on change of partnership names stated in Opinion 10-1960 (11/22/69)
