
11/69 F Lawyer appearance on television

It is proper for an attorney to appear on a national, regional or local television program concerning legal topics, in the case of educational programs for the public sponsored by or supported by bar associations, or on non-commercial programs of an educational nature produced by radio or TV broadcasting companies as a public service. The attorney may be identified by his profession. Further, he must conform to the Code of Professional Responsibility. (11/22/69)
