
11/73 Use of designation “general counsel” limited

An attorney may not permit his name to be listed on the letterhead of a corporate client as “general counsel” unless he or his firm devotes all of its professional time to that client, or unless a special corporate stationery with his name is developed for his use only, DR 2-102(A)(4). (11/30/73)