
2/76 B Letterhead

Members of a legal staff employed on a full-time basis by a corporation may not ethically use a letterhead which is designed in such a manner as to imply a law partner exists when in fact there is none and the attorneys have full-time responsibility to the corporation.