
3/67 A County board member

Citing Opinion 12-1965, the committee concluded that it is improper for a lawyer-county board member to prosecute a claim against the county in behalf of a private client. In this case, there would be a conflict of interest between his duty as a public official and the duty to his prospective private client. (3/15/67)