
3/76 Appearance of improper conflict alleviated by full disclosure

It would not be improper for an attorney whose office is adjacent to the office of an attorney-police and fire commission member, but with whom there is no partner, to represent a complainant in a matter which may come before the commission. Full disclosure to any relationship between the attorney and the commission member would remove any appearance of impropriety.