

---

4/67 Confession of judgment proper

---

In response to an opinion request as to the propriety of an attorney for a state agency paying a fee to a lawyer in private practice to confess judgment on a large number of cognovit notes which he was planning to collect on behalf of the state government, this committee referred to ABA Opinion 70 which permits such activity. (4/15/67)