
5/68 A Conflict in will contest

It is improper for a law partner of a lawyer-draftsman, who is to be called as a witness, to represent the proponent of a will in a contested suit. There is one exception to this prohibition, in the instance when the lawyer-draftsman's testimony relates to the formality of execution and not to the contested issues. (5/16/68)