
6/70 G Legal services center conflict

Attorneys on the staff of a legal services center activity should avoid appearing on opposite sides of a divorce action in the same manner as attorneys in private practice must avoid a conflict of interest. In addition, attorneys must avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Although a legal aid case presents a unique situation, lawyers on the staff should obey the Code of Professional Responsibility in all instances. (6/11/70)