

---

6/75 E      Announcement of availability for referrals on a commission basis

---

An attorney may announce his/her availability to assist other lawyers on referral matters, but not on a commission basis. The division of fees between lawyers who are not in a partnership or other association together except on the basis of work accomplished or the responsibility assumed is improper.