
7/68 A Trust officer as private attorney

In response to an inquiry as to whether a bank trust officer who is admitted to practice law in this state may act as counsel to another lawyer retained in a probate matter upon request by that lawyer and his client, the committee concluded that if the trust officer was acting in such capacity, it would be improper for him to handle probate, estate planning and tax orders under the circumstances. (7/8/68)