
9/75 C Firm name following purchase of branch office

A firm purchasing the physical assets of a law office in another town and operating it as a branch office may use its own name in connection with that practice. However, it may not use the name of a retiring lawyer in the community with its own as a partnership when there would be no partnership.