

I am an attorney and senior compliance manager at a publicly traded Education Technology (EdTech) company. I focus on corporate and school compliance, employment law, investigations, and ethics. My practice includes:

- Investigating allegations of misconduct, harassment, and discrimination. Improving Speak Up hotline, whistleblowing, and investigations processes at companies. I have enhanced the quality of investigations while ensuring a responsive investigation.
- Building contractual relationships with entities to increase the diversity of our nationwide teacher population. Serving as formal mentor through our company’s diversity groups for people of color and women.
- Helping schools navigate online education in their districts.
- Expanding school background screenings to prevent sex offenders from working in our schools.

Needless to say, our organization has been quite busy these last two years. The most exciting part of my job is the intersection between law and technology. It is fun to work in a space where I make a difference, but I do mental gymnastics on a daily basis. I am a 2013 graduate of Marquette Law School and a Michigan native. I am currently serving on the NLRD board, and on the SBOW’s Board of Governors. In my role, I advocate for nonresident lawyer interests within the bar.

A fun fact about me – I have worked from home for a D.C.-based company for the last seven years. I wrote articles for the state bar about transitioning to remote work, and managing staff during the pandemic. During normal times, I travel periodically for work to D.C., Phoenix, and Florida. I would be honored to continue representing out-of-state lawyers like us on the NRLD board.

Emily S. Kelchen – Secretary

I am interested in becoming secretary of the NRLD board after serving as a director for several years. I am diligent about attending NRLD meetings, and taking my own notes at them, so I am prepared to take the minutes and help keep NRLD members in the loop about bar activity. I also hope to continue my work on the NRLD communications committee. I have worked hard to get the NRLD on track communications-wise by developing a blogging and social media posting plan. If I am re-elected, my goal is to help NRLD chapters communicate their events and other information to the rest of the NRLD so we can all be more connected. I would also like to leverage my position on the bar's communication's committee to get more NRLD members published/work on publishing more content that is helpful to NRLD members as well as lawyers practicing in Wisconsin. If my goals seem a bit comms-heavy, it's because that's what I do for a living. I run Kelchen Consulting, a legal marketing firm with clients across the nation, from my home in Clinton, TN.

Angela M. Aliota – Director

My name is Angela Aliota and my primary practice is in the State of Illinois; however, I was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Wisconsin will always be home to me. I graduated from UW Madison in 2002 and am a Badger for life as well! I was sworn into the Wisconsin Bar in 2011 and have been involved in different organizations and committees throughout the years. Unfortunately, during the past 3 to 5 years, I have been less involved and would like to change that!

My entire family still lives in Milwaukee and surrounding areas and I go home to visit several times a month and also practice in Milwaukee, Waukesha, Kenosha and Racine Counties in the area of family and criminal law. My Grandfather and now my Father have been in the restaurant business in Milwaukee since 1981 and my Father currently owns Aliota's Pub and Grill in Milwaukee.

I am very excited to hopefully be selected as a board member of the NRLD division so I can meet other attorneys that are similarly situated as I am, and also give back to the Wisconsin Bar, in a positive and fun way.

Daniel O. Barham - Director

My name is Daniel Barham, and I am writing to indicate my interest in serving as a Director of the Non-Resident Lawyers Division ("NRLD") of the State Bar of Wisconsin. I am married to my wife of 21 years (Sommer), and we are the proud parents of Daniel Jr. and Jonny. I graduated from Vanderbilt University Law School. I was originally licensed to practice law in Ohio (2007) and was admitted to the Wisconsin bar in 2013. After practicing law for eight years in the Midwest, I had the opportunity to partner with a good friend from law school (also licensed in Wisconsin) and form Barham & Maucere LLC. I am the Managing Member of our firm which is a boutique business litigation firm with attorneys practicing in numerous jurisdictions. Besides Wisconsin, I am licensed in five other states and numerous federal courts. I lead our firm's litigation practice group; in that role, I have actively litigated cases across Wisconsin.

I believe non-resident lawyers can provide a unique and valuable perspective to the Wisconsin bar and its members. A few examples might be creating opportunities for NRLD lawyers to collaborate, educate, or co-counsel with Wisconsin lawyers on multi-jurisdictional matters; sharing knowledge of other states' laws and procedures with other Wisconsin bar members to comment on policy matters; or simply encouraging informal cross-cultural exchange to enhance all attorneys' career experience. I would like to contribute to these ends. Also, as we (hopefully) reach the end of the COVID-19 pandemic and the isolation it required, I believe it is so important to our profession for members of the bar to connect personally. I believe that by serving as a Director of the NRLD, I could help. I would appreciate your support. Thank you.

Alfred M. Boll – Director

I hope that my professional experience as a U.S. Foreign Service Officer since 2003 and as a former Legal Adviser and Delegate to the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) from 1993-2003, will allow me to provide the members of the State Bar's Nonresident Lawyers Division with useful perspectives and links to foreign affairs, international organizations, and international legal practice.

Since graduating from U.W. Law School in 1993 I have lived and worked in Australia, Brazil, Hong Kong, Iraq, Indonesia, Kosovo, the Netherlands, and Portugal, and was admitted to the State Bar of California and as a Legal Practitioner in New South Wales, Australia. I also completed a Doctorate of Juridical Studies (SJD) at the University of Sydney in Australia related to how countries treat persons with more than one nationality (citizenship), published as a book with a Foreword by a sitting Judge of the International Court of Justice: <https://brill.com/view/title/12606>

Although my work at the Department of State is as a generalist Political Officer, it has involved legal issues and experience including developing protocols on international migration, implementation of peace agreements, efforts to end displacement and statelessness, consular protection, and investment treaties. My work for the ICRC focused on the implementation of international humanitarian law, or the law of armed conflict, working with armed forces and national governments. I have kept close ties to Wisconsin, where I was born and raised, and am eager to serve the State Bar and strengthen its ties to nonresident members.

Kathryn M. Bullon – Director

Thank you for the opportunity to run for the NRLD Board of Directors. I am honored to be a past Division President and a current Board member, and I would appreciate your support in the upcoming election.

I have represented the Division and our members' interests on the State Bar Board of Governors and its Executive Committee for five years, and on the State Bar Finance Committee for eight years. As a member of the Bar's Emeritus Task Force, I worked to ensure that nonresident members can smoothly move into Emeritus status. Beyond that, I continued to work with Bar staff and leadership to secure a WI Supreme Court Rule amendment ensuring that Division members are given full comity for CLE earned in compliance with their jurisdiction of practice if they wish to move from Inactive to Active status in Wisconsin.

As a Division officer and Board member I worked to update Division bylaws to reflect current practices and to encourage diversity outreach for the Board, and supported enhanced Member outreach through social media, our Division blog, and a Division e-list. I currently chair the Board's New Member Outreach Committee and serve on the Diversity Committee. We have accomplished much as a Board, but there is always more to do. I would appreciate the opportunity to continue that work. Whomever you support in the upcoming election, please exercise your opportunity to choose your Board members and vote! Thank you.
J.D. (Wisconsin, 1980); M.Ad.Ed. (St. Francis Xavier, 2011).

Stefani R. Buster – Director

While my career has woven together aspects of law and policy, it has consistently been accompanied by my drive for outreach and service. After graduating from University of Wisconsin Law School, I worked as a Contract Attorney in Washington, DC; Liaison with the US Department of State’s International Visitor Leadership Program; and then in the Legal Services Section and International Data Centre for the Comprehensive Nuclear Test Ban Treaty Organization in Vienna, Austria. I would later return to the US to manage a large nuclear research and development contract with the US Department of Energy, serve as Executive Director for the Nuclear Engineering Department at NC State, and then move to a role as Manager at Duke University focusing on sponsored research audit, risk, and compliance. During my time overseas, I maintained involvement with embassy-based and ex-pat organizations for outreach. Upon returning the US, I continued my outreach and service with grassroots volunteering from food bank to Special Olympics efforts as well as committee service in energy; nuclear; and diversity, equity, and inclusion. These are activities that I take seriously because I see their positive impact both now and for the future. Serving on the NRLD Board would allow me to expand that impact.

I look forward to the opportunity to use my background and experience as a springboard to make valuable contributions to the NRLD Board, help stimulate overall nonresident lawyer interaction, and connect with fellow nonresident lawyers.

Wendy D. Calvert – Director

I am seeking a position as a director with the Non-Resident Lawyers.

I have volunteered in the State Bar throughout my career: Young Lawyers, Outreach Diversity Chair and Non-Resident Lawyers Division and Board of Governors. I now seek a position as a director on the Non-Resident Lawyers Division Board to continue her service as a past director and president of the board and to continue the efforts of working to unify Non-Residential Lawyers in Wisconsin on greater causes and global opportunities.

I have previously served as members of the Young Lawyers Division and the Non-Resident Lawyers Division serving on its board between 2005 to 2011:

- Director 2005 - 2007
- Secretary 2007 – 2008
- President Elect 2008 – 2009
- President 2009 - 2010
- Past President 2010 – 2011

During my tenure, the board successfully worked with the State Bar of Wisconsin to endorse and petition the Supreme Court of Wisconsin to adopt unconditional comity for Non-Resident Lawyers. This amendment to SCR 31.04 now exempts non-resident attorneys from taking Wisconsin CLE courses, if they have met the mandatory requirements in their home states. If elected to the Non-Resident Lawyers Division, my goal will be as it was in the past, to work towards unify and creating an environment of collaboration with Non-Resident lawyers and lawyers currently practicing within the State of Wisconsin to further foster a culture of global collaboration and support.

If you are interested in supporting me, have more questions, or wish to discuss your ideas, please feel free to contact me.

Richard H. Ebbott – Director

I would be happy to be placed on the slate to run for a board seat for the Nonresident Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

I have practiced civil trial work in Michigan for 51 years. Before that I was an Assistant District Attorney in Rock County Wisconsin. I and my wife have family in Wisconsin and travel back 2-3 times a year. One of my projects for the Wisconsin State Bar was to work with the late Jack DeWitt (my mentor from my law school days) on programs to help young lawyers in solo or small practices. I continue to be interested in the Wisconsin State Bar and the Wisconsin Law School and would be pleased to help however I might.

Holly L. Fulkerson – Director

I have been a member of the Wisconsin Bar since 2001 practicing mostly in the Madison area. In 2019 my husband and I moved to St. Croix US Virgin Islands to experience a different culture and share our skills with a community that was recovering from devastating hurricanes in 2017. I took a position as VAWA Project Director/Staff Attorney with Legal Services of the Virgin Islands, and my husband who is a welder/metal fabricator takes private jobs fixing boats and fences and other damaged metal structures. My experience here on the tiny island of St. Croix has taught me the importance of networking and given me the opportunity to benefit from the experience of colleagues who come from all over the world. I am interested in any of the positions that are open for next year on the NRLD Board. I would love the opportunity to share my experiences with Wisconsin licensed attorneys who practice in other places and learn from them as well. I have always wanted to be of service to the WI Bar and I feel that this is a good opportunity.

Justin D. Hein – Director

I am interested in applying for a Board of Directors position for the Nonresident Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Offering proven experience as a litigator, managing attorney, and operations executive, I possess a fundamental knowledge of legal, business, and leadership principles that can be easily translated to meet the objectives in filling this position.

Simply stated, I offer an array of experiences and achievements, including:

- Overseeing a statewide administrative, healthcare, and employment law practice.
- Representing and advocating on behalf of highly-skilled professionals in administrative hearings, writ of mandamus hearings, and civil litigation.
- Formation of and counsel to multiple professional corporations throughout the state of California.
- Expanding the practice into satellite offices located in San Diego, Santa Rosa, and San Luis Obispo.
- Guiding a 2-fold increase in new clients from 2007 to 2010. And again from 2012 to 2016.
- Serving as a neutral administrative hearing officer for the Counties of San Diego and Sonoma.

Given my experience, I can provide the perspective of an attorney who has worked his way up the ladder at a large organization. I have also gone through the process of transitioning from one very specific type of law – taxation – to a varied practice. Finally, I also have extensive experience working on my own, marketing myself, as well as the two organizations where I have worked.

Jeffrey O'Brien – Director

I have enjoyed practicing in the State of Wisconsin since my 2006 admission. I find that the State Bar of Wisconsin is unique in its outreach efforts to nonresident lawyers through the NRLD. I enjoy having opportunities to network with other nonresident lawyers and would like to help facilitate these opportunities through Board service. With the increased use of technology such as Zoom and Microsoft Teams since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, I feel that these tools can be used to further these outreach efforts and improve on an already strong ethos of inclusiveness.

I can bring the perspective of an experienced attorney (21 years) who is also a member of other state bar associations (Minnesota and Iowa) to help the NRLD maintain its tradition of outreach, professionalism and commitment to enhancing the practice of law amongst those members of the State Bar who choose to practice outside of the State of Wisconsin.

Rexford P. Sheild – Director

I respectfully request your vote to serve as a Board of Director for the Nonresidents Lawyers Division (“NRLD”) of the State Bar. I am a 2017 graduate of Marquette University Law School and was recently promoted to Conflicts Attorney at Foley & Lardner in their Dallas office. I am highly intrigued at the prospect of serving a Board of Director for the NRLD. During the early stages of the pandemic, I organized a fundraiser, “Rex’s Run For Right Thoughts: A Mental Health Initiative,” and solicited donations to benefit the Rogers Behavioral Health Foundation and the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. In total, I raised roughly $6,300. This experience proves I can be innovative during difficult, high-stress times and will allow me to assist in promoting and expanding business opportunities within the NRLD. In addition, throughout my professional career, I have demonstrated to be punctual, diligent, and reliable. These attributes, along with my compliance and ethics experience, will allow me to be an asset to the NRLD and will allow me to greatly contribute to the NRLD’s overall mission. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.
